

LeaderImpact Podcast – Episode 30 - Angel Morales - The Importance of Storytelling and how a Person or a Story can Change your Life

Release Date – March 1, 2023

Episode Summary:

Angel is the director of LeaderImpact NEXT in Canada. As well, he is very involved in his community and is a board member of several nonprofit organizations. Prior to becoming full-time in vocational ministry, Angel was an entrepreneur and a sales and business development executive in the high-tech industry. He's married to Mary Ann for 35 years and has two boys, Matthew and Michael. Today we're going to talk to Angel about the importance of storytelling and how a person or a story can change your life.

How to Contact Angel:

- Linkedin
- angelm@leaderimpact.com

Show Notes:

0:00 - Show Introduction

0:43 - Angel's Introduction

1:52 - Angel's journey to Canada

2:19 - In Canada, he found that your background doesn't matter as much as your skills and abilities

3:30 - Why he came to Canada

4:23 - How he came on staff with LeaderImpact

6:41 - How his involvement with his LeaderImpact group led to him joining the staff

7:41 - His experience on a LeaderImpact Global Exchange to the Dominican Republic and how he used his storytelling skills

10:30 - Some of his favorite stories he has experienced

14:52 - Another one of his favorite stories

“Distraction is an enemy of success.”

Click to tweet

19:14 - How distraction can get us off mission

20:07 - Angel's faith journey

- 21:04 - How a conversation with his cousin changed his thinking
- 23:05 - How God slowly changed Angel's thinking

24:35 - Angel's experience with his LeaderImpact group

28:06 - More information about LeaderImpact NEXT

“My group is my best stop of the week.”

Click to tweet

31:40 - What Angel wants his faith legacy to be

32:47 - What gives Angel joy