

LeaderImpact Podcast – Episode 31 - Andrew Denysov - One Year Later in Ukraine

Release Date – March 15, 2023

Episode Summary:

This is a follow-up conversation with Andrew Denysov from Lviv, Ukraine. We first introduced you to Andrew in April 2022 in podcast number eight. And we chatted about living out our purpose in uncertain times. Ukraine has been at war for over a year, and we wanted to check back with Andrew, the CEO of TechVision, on how he, his family, and his country are doing.

Show Notes:

0:00 - Show introduction

0:15 - How Andrew is doing since the first conversation in March 2022

3:20 - How Andrew and his family are doing

- 4:20 - The most difficult and busy time he has experienced, in all of the country, not just his family
- 4:55 - Difficult for the kids as they go to school. Air raid sirens still go off and teachers need to take kids to the bomb shelters
- 6:40 - Still need to keep living

7:00 - What Andrew is doing for his children to help them through the war

- 7:50 - They know what is going on. Pray about what is going on.

9:28 - His family did not leave, and how they are handling that situation today.

- 10:30 - Andrew wanted them to leave the country, but his wife didn't want to leave him and they stayed together

Never give up!

Click to tweet

11:10 - How he has managed Tech Vision during this time and employees who are still in Ukraine

- 11:35 - He feels he lives in a safe part of the country. Some have moved to Lviv, but there are others who live closer to the front lines with their families.

13:05 - Has Andrew been able to travel to the United States

- 13:20 - He has not been able to travel, only a few have been able to travel
- 14:48 - Andrew was able to travel to the United States to do some humanitarian work

18:00 - How can business leaders help during this time

- 19:25 - They have continued to work and their business has grown. The tech sector has grown

21:10 - In the last conversation May 9 was thought to be a crucial day, will it be that way this year?

- 21:30 - No one thinks about that now. They only think of the Victory Day!

22:10 - Cyber-war and what is going on now

- 22:30 - Cyber attacks being initiated by both sides. Not intense at this time

23:25 - How Andrew's church is doing

- 24:10 - People are open to hearing about eternal hope. People have seen the church in helping others during the war.

26:40 - Andrew is translating podcasts to help Ukrainian leaders grow in their leadership

32:40 - The message Andrew wants to share at this time