Special Lunch with Darrel Janz

LEADING FOR 60 YEARS... WHO ANCHORED THE ANCHOR?

Integrating business, life & faith

Darrel Janz has been a part of the radio and television industry for over 60 years. From his humble beginnings on a farm northeast of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Darrel went on to graduate from Saskatchewan Teachers College in 1961 before embarking on a broadcasting career at CFAM in Manitoba.

By 1963, he was broadcasting radio and TV news at CHAB in Moose Jaw and soon began a 60-year adventure with CTV taking him across Canada. Darrel anchored the CTV Calgary news for 40 years and did a weekly feature for CTV called Inspired Albertans. In June 2023, he began co-hosting a weekly talk show on YES TV called Legacy Makers and continues to be an active speaker and emcee. He has been involved with LeaderImpact since 2016 and became a group co-leader in 2017. He is a widower with two children on Vancouver Island and a stepson in High River Alberta.

Darrel will share the challenges and innovation he faced during his decades in radio and television and how his faith journey has shaped his life and career.
