LEADERIMPACT CALGARY SPOTLIGHT

Special Lunch with Lisa Gareau

THE NEXT BEST STEP: Risk, Faith & Purpose In Motion

Integrating business, life & faith

Risk-taking is at the heart of growth, but progress is rarely made up of a single big leap, it's a journey made up of small intentional steps, requiring a balance of tenacity and trust. While not shy to make big, bold decisions, tenacious entrepreneur Lisa Gareau has learned from experience the power of simply taking "the next best step". She now moves forward with courage, turns hesitation into momentum, and sees how small, faithful actions lead to significant, lasting impact and growth. Tying this tenacity to her trust in God, Lisa believes every decision we are faced with is also an invitation to take a leap of faith. She will encourage us to trust God's still small voice, align with the purpose He has put on our hearts, and – with His help – confidently take the next best step!

Lisa is a life-long event planner and has been a Connection Strategy Coach for over a decade. Passionate to carve a path and create a place for in-house and do-it-yourself event planners like herself, Lisa founded Candy Event Consulting in 2008. Candy's game-changing strategy packages, deep-dive coaching sessions, empowering learning opportunities, and relevant planning resources help anyone planning their own events to energize their efforts and experience better outcomes. Lisa travels the world but loves to return home to Calgary, Alberta near the beautiful Canadian Rockies – a favourite family playground.
